Navayo is a full aniline nubuk leather which provides any piece with a sophisticated antique look. It has been hand stained by a combination of subtle dyes, followed by a hand sanding application. This leather is rustic leather, so all markings from Mother Nature are embraced to give it an old cabin look. This leather is just waiting for that comfortable chair or sofa to just be lived in. Each hide will show variance in both color and texture, giving each a distinct one of a kind quality.
